

Fastener Guarantee

Stainless Steel Fasteners

Buildex Stainless Steel fasteners are manufactured to exacting high standards of quality and are subject to strict inspection and testing procedures.

Buildex is so confident of the performance and quality of its Stainless Steel fasteners they will back it with project specific guarantees.

This guarantee is against the loss of structural integrity due to the effects of corrosion or metallurgical defects.

Buildex will undertake to replace any defective screws at no cost.

The Buildex guarantee gives you peace of mind against project failure and expensive call backs.
